

Happy Labor Day friends!,

After an August recess in Central America with an immigration advocacy delegation, organizing and partnering with a host of district events for kids, and getting a week of much needed vacation with my husband Marcos, Session starts up again on Tuesday. We're working hard this Session in the State House and in the district to champion rights for all workers, to keep our constitutional obligation to provide equitable and quality education to all our children, and to make affordable housing a right in Massachusetts. Check out our August recess newsletter at the link below

Thank you for your advocacy for the communities of 15th Suffolk/Norfolk and the Commonwealth!
